MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: HEINE v. RAUS - Slander Suit, Federal District Court, Baltimore

1. On 5 January, I met with Mr. Carl Eardley, Civil Division, Department of Justice. I briefed him on the case in very general terms and explained our need for secrecy concerning true identity.]

2. I explained that what we wanted from Justice was (1) unity of policy concerning the claim of privilege, and (2) assistance at trial should it be needed. Although rather negative at first, Mr. Eardley later reported that we would get full support from Justice including court appearance. He further stated that he was sure that the Government could resist discovery in this case.
